

Invitation to the press conference livestream Language survey 2019: first results

What percentage of the population regularly uses several languages? How has use of the national languages in Switzerland changed in recent years? What is the situation of non-national languages? Which population groups speak several languages? Which languages are learned in Switzerland and why?

The Federal Statistical Office (FSO) will answer these questions at the press conference, which will be streamed live online. It will also be an opportunity to draw attention to the particularly Swiss aspects of multilingualism, thanks to the first findings from the FSO's language, religion and culture survey (website).

Monday, 25 January 2021

Federal Palace Media Centre
Conference room N-2, Bundesgasse 8-12, Bern
9:30 to 10:30am

Presentations:

Georges-Simon Ulrich, Director General, FSO
Maik Roth, Demography and Migration Section
Fiona Müller, Demography and Migration Section

Moderator:

Urs Frei Communication/Publishing Division

Information and registration:

Media Service
Tel. 058 463 60 13
media@bfs.admin.ch

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, only journalists accredited with the Federal Palace (holding a type C badge) may attend this press conference. Other media representatives will be able to follow the conference live on the FSO's interactive YouTube page. Journalists without accreditation wishing to ask the participants questions directly during the questions and answers session should call 058 310 50 00. Accredited journalists can join using their existing personal login.

Documentation will be available from 25 January at 9:30am at www.statistique.admin.ch.